COMMUTATION REFUSED.

The Pottses Must Hang in Elko on June 20th.

The efforts made by Judge Bigelow and under Sheriff Dawley in favor of the Pottses has been unsuccessful and the two will be hung at Elko on Friday the 20th, the Board refusing to reverse their decision. The execution comes off in the yard in the rear of the county jail. A fence sixteen feet in height has been erected around the yard to keep the gallows from the view of the spectators. A gallows with all of the appointments and all of the modern improvements has been received by Sheriff Bernard, from Placerville, Cal. But few persons will be admitted to witness the scene. Both of the condemned persons continue to assert their innocence and the truth of the statement they made that Faucett came to his death by his own hand.

Mrs. Potts has made a written statement, substantially, the same as already published, and they both declare that the last words they will utter before meeting their God will be a most solemn avowal of the truth of the written words they leave behind them. The woman takes the matter calmly. Her appetite is good and she sleeps well. She appears perfectly reconciled to her fate and will probably meet death without a quiver. Her husband, however, is nervous and restless, eating and sleeping very little, and spending most of his time walking back and forth in the corridor of the jail. This will be the first legal execution of a woman on the Pacific Coast, although a Spanish woman was hanged by a mob at Downieville, Cal., sometime in the early fifties.

Senatorial Quarrel.

WASHINGTON, June 13. — The marble room of the Senate was almost the scene of a battle royal yesterday between Reagan of Texas and Stewart who had just met with a defeat in the fight he made on Major Powell, Chief of the General Survey, and consequently feels very tender. Reagan, on the contrary, has been a stout champion of Powell. As Stewart passed Reagan, the latter began chaffing him about his defeat. Stewart took one or two of the Texan's bandinages and then wearied of it, and angrily charged Reagan with bring a mere tool and puppet of Powell. Reagan's wrath rose, and he retorted in good kind. Words ran high, until at last Stewart, beside himself with anger, charged Reagan with falsehood. Reagan jumped for Stewart, and a battle in which age and avoirdupois were the principal factors was only avoided by friends. Later in the day Stewart called on Reagan and apologized, but Reagan haughtily declined to speak to him. A few hours later Senator Hearst managed to make them shake hands.

WILL HAVE TO RUN.—J. Kendrick, the trainer of Dobbins reached the city yesterday morning. When Dobbins made the race he considered that it was like picking up so much money, but he has recently come to the conclusion that he has no such easy thing and so concluded to telegraph for his old trainer and get himself in condition. The fact of the matter is that Dobbins, considered one of the fastest men on the Coast, has taken considerable of a contract when giving Rosenthal nine feet in one hundred yards while Rosenthal though not ranking as a professional is a phenomenal runner and the man who beats will have to hustle every step of the way. The amount of money involved, $3,000 a side, shows that each man thinks at least that he can win. It is the largest stake ever run for in this State.
